Note

Inam land No 64 is Shanbogi Service Inam. It is proposed to give other land in exchange for it on Kandayam tenure.

I don't quite understand this remark. Do the words "on Kandayam tenure" qualify "land" or "give"? If the land to be given will be reg[d] as "Inam" after it is given, this all right. [illegible] 4/10 D.F.C.

The Inam land which have now given up may be excluded from the land 'Inam'. As full assessment is going
be paid on the land
to be given in exchange it may be treated as Kandayam land".

The Inamdar does not wish to be given in exchange. He wants land to be given subject to payment of full

assessment.

Mr Narain Rao
wanted perhaps to explain this by his remark.
I think the words
"on Kandayam tenure"
qualify "give" -
